Description :

PDF-35983 | People of European descent form the bulk of the population in most of the temperate zones of the world--North America, Australia and New Zealand. The military successes of European imperialism are easy to explain because in many cases they were achieved by using firearms against spears. Alfred Crosby, however, explains that the Europeans' displacement and replacement of the native peoples in the t... Ecological Imperialism: The Biological Expansion of Europe, 900-1900 (Studies in Environment and History)
