Description :

PDF-a5cb3 | Vladimir Gilyarovsky's classic portrait of the Russian capital is one of Russians' most beloved books. This award-winning translation makes the book available to English language readers for the first time. Gilyarovsky's self-described "chronicle" is a spectacular verbal pastiche: conversation, from gutter gibberish to the drawing room; oratory, from illiterates to aristocrats; prose, from boil... Moscow and Muscovites
