Description :

PDF-2481b | In this compelling study of the treatment of "enemy" minorities in the Russian Empire during the First World War, Eric Lohr uncovers a dramatic story of mass deportations, purges, expropriations, and popular violence. A campaign initially aimed at restricting foreign citizens rapidly spun out of control. It swept up Russian subjects of German, Jewish, and Muslim backgrounds and drove roughly a mil... Nationalizing the Russian Empire: The Campaign against Enemy Aliens during World War I (Russian Research Center Studies)
