Description :

PDF-1cacc | The enactment of the German extermination policies that resulted in the murder of six million European Jews depended upon many factors, including the cooperation of local authorities and police departments, and the passivity of the populations, primarily of their political and spiritual elites. Necessary also was the victims' willingness to submit, often with the hope of surviving long enough to e... Nazi Germany and the Jews, 1939-1945: The Years of Extermination
