Description :

PDF-18b1a | The conflict between Russia and America shaped the world for over four decades. Both were universalist powers – they wanted every country in the world to copy their model of government and economy. They could not rest until the other side had been vanquished, and until the mid-1980s this included the prospect of nuclear war. In a new edition of one of the best-selling books in the Seminar Studie... Russia, America and the Cold War: 1949-1991 (Revised 2nd Edition)
