Description :

PDF-35a05 | For the first time, Castro's Cuba is described from the perspective of a young Soviet female engineer working there in the late 1960s. The timeliness of Paulina's revelations is underscored by the recent revival of Russian military ambitions globally and in Cuba. This is an authentic first-hand story of a young female Soviet defector who made a choice to risk her life rather than to become a KGB... The Sea is Only Knee Deep - Volume 1
