Description :

PDF-476b6 | For more than half a century, it has been widely recognized that the Treaty of Versailles, founded on retribution against Germany and the Austro-Hungarian Empire, created the circumstances that led inevitably to World War II. Less acknowledged and understood is the treaty's profound impact on many other parts of the world?an impact that echoes to this day across Asia, the Balkans, and througho... A Shattered Peace: Versailles 1919 and the Price We Pay Today
