ISBN : #087580246X | Date : 1999-05-01

Description :

PDF-99d68 | Using a wealth of archival sources previously unavailable to scholars, Smith examines the forces that attracted many social and intellectual leaders of eighteenth-century Russia to Freemasonry as an instrument for change and progress. By "working the rough stone" of their inner thoughts and feelings, such men sought to become champions of moral enlightenment and to create a vision of social action... Working the Rough Stone: Freemasonry and Society in Eighteenth-Century Russia
